FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On December 21st, Federal Court Judge Timothy Hillman ruled to continue the injunction which prevents the Grafton and Upton Railroad from delivering four 80,000 gallon propane tanks to Grafton. In addition the railroad is to cease all work related to the propane facility until January 14th. The railroad is permitted to construct tracks at the site. A trial date has been set for January 14th to determine whether preemption exists for the development of this site.
