

The Health Story Collaborative in partnership with
The Joint Coalition on Health and
The Fitchburg Art Museum Community Gallery present:

The Opioid Project:
Changing Perceptions through
Art and Storytelling

Attendees are strongly encouraged to bring cellphones and headphones in order to fully experience this multi-media project.

An interactive art and storytelling project designed to encourage dialog, increase awareness, decrease stigma and change societal views about addiction and those affected

To register for this Free Event, click on link above or go to: Eventbrite

Please join us for the opening of this exhibit and a reception, opening remarks at 2:30

Fitchburg Art Museum

185 Elm Street
Fitchburg, MA 01420

Sunday, February 4th 2018

2:00-4:00pm